

CCPP BISMAYAH

IRAQ

Owner:
Mass Group Holding, Jordan

General contractor:
Power & Plant, Greece

Capacity (electrical):
3.000 MW

Start of construction:
2015

Start of commercial operation:
in combined cycle: October 2017

Photos:
Mass Group Holding

Owner Bismayah Combined Cycle Power Plant is being built by Mass Group Holding (MGH) Mass Group Holding, Jordan, on behalf of Iraq's Ministry of Electricity. The Power Plant is being developed in General contractor two phases, having 1.500 MW. The GE 9FA gas turbines have a combined rated Power & Plant, Greece capacity of 2x430 MW, the remaining 920 MW capacity is generated by the steam turbines. The Power & Plant is part of the Bismayah New City project, that covers the construction of Capacity (electrical) 100.000 homes incl. the entire infrastructure required.

APPA Consult GmbH is acting as Owner's Engineer on behalf of MGH. Within the team of APPA, convex ZT GmbH is responsible for the design review of civil works.

You are currently viewing a placeholder content from YouTube. To access the actual content, click the button below. Please note that doing so will share data with third-party providers.

More Information Unblock content Accept required service and unblock content